final spots and already qualified athletes will bowl only for the extra prize.

First Round

All athletes will bowl 1 shot. All athletes who score 6 or less are eliminated.

Second Round

All athletes will bowl 1 shot. All athletes who score 7 or less are eliminated.

Third Round

All Athletes will bowl 1 shot. All athletes who score 8 or less are eliminated. This will continue until we have 6 or less athletes left.

Final Round

All remaining athletes will be assigned to 1 lane and bowl 1 shot.

The lowest scoring athlete (or athletes, if more having the same lowest score) is eliminated. This continues until there is a winner.

The top 2 non-qualified athletes will qualify for the Open Category Final.

In case of less than 3 non-qualifiers among the last 6 athletes, there will be an extra roll-off between the last eliminated athletes before the final round.

Turbo High Game competition

The standing includes the only the high game in any 6 game series bowled by athletes having signed up for the Turbo High Game Competition before the squad of the series has started.

The Open Category final

32 athletes will qualify for Open Category Final

- A. 25 athletes from the general qualification including all squads, seeded 1-25
- B. 4 athletes from a separate standing including athletes from Netherlands, Belgium and Luxemburg
- C. 1 athlete from the Turbo High Game, seeded 30
- D. 2 athletes from the Elimination Roll-off, seeded 31-32

An athlete will only qualify once and always from the categories in the order A-B-C-D. If an athlete qualifies in more than one category, the next positioned athlete from the next category, not valid for the already qualified athlete, will qualify.

Seeded for stages

Athletes seeded 1-8 will start the final in the Knock-Out Stage

Athletes seeded 9-32 will start the final in the Group Stage

Draws

Draws for the 6 groups of 4 athletes in the final step 1, and for all matches in the final step 2-4, will be performed publicly in the centre.

Athletes seeded 9-14 will be in Pot 1, athletes seeded 15-20 will be in Pot 2, athletes seeded 21-26 will be in Pot 3 and athletes seeded 27-32 will be in Pot 4.

Group Stage

24 athletes, divided in 6 groups of 4 athletes, will bowl 4 games starting from scratch.

The best athlete in each group and the two lucky losers will qualify for the Knock-out Stage.

The two lucky losers are the two athletes with the highest pin fall not winning their group.

Eliminated athletes will be ranked 17-32 according to their seeding.
