European Bowling Tour Rules

1 Purpose

- 1.1 World Ranking System (WRS) is a World wide ranking system for tenpin bowling effective as of 1 January 2000.
- 1.2 The purpose of WRS is to attract top players, sponsors, television companies and other media to important tournaments and to improve the quality and the strength of tenpin bowling by conducting a World Bowling Masters once a year.
- 1.3 By publishing up to date ranking lists for both women and men WRS ensures that media all over the world continuously are familiar with the actual top names in tenpin bowling.

2 WRS sub-systems

- 2.1 The World Ranking System is divided in three different sub-systems, one for each of the three zones (American Zone, Asian Bowling Federation and European Tenpin Bowling Federation).
- 2.2 Both the WRS calendar period and the calendar period for each of the sub-systems are identical to the calendar year.
- 2.3 These Rules cover - except Article 12 - the WRS sub-system in Europe, named the European Bowling Tour (EBT).

3 Ownership and commitments

- 3.1 The WRS is owned by the World Tenpin Bowling Association (WTBA).
- 3.2 The EBT is owned by the European Tenpin Bowling Federation (ETBF).
- 3.3 Tournaments which are included in the EBT, are owned by the organiser of each tournament.
- 3.4 EBT Tournaments are governed by the WTBA Playing Rules and the ETBF Rules Chapter 5, Rules for ETBF Sanctioned Tournaments.
- 3.5 To be eligible to participate in EBT Tournaments, players must be registered as member of a WTBA affiliated federation.

4 Administration and responsibilities

- 4.1 The ETBF Presidium has the overall responsibility for the EBT.
- 4.2 The EBT is operated either by a member of the ETBF Presidium or by an administrator appointed by the ETBF Presidium.
- 4.3 The EBT Rules are maintained by and can be changed by the ETBF Presidium.

5 Definition of EBT Tournaments

- 5.1 EBT Tournaments are tournaments open to all eligible players provided the tournament includes at least one individual event.
- 5.2 The World Championships and the European Championships, in which individuals are the ultimate champions, may be included in the EBT.
- 5.3 Tournaments with team events, youth tournaments, regional championships, invitational tournaments, and tournaments with other limitations (such as age, geographical) can not be accepted as EBT Tournaments.

6 Tournaments in the EBT

- 6.1 Only tournaments sanctioned by the national federation and the ETBF Tournament Committee, as specified in the ETBF Rules Chapter 5, Rules for ETBF Sanctioned Tournaments, can be accepted in the EBT.
- 6.2 Tournaments accepted in the EBT are named "EBT Tournaments".
- 6.3 A number of 10-20 tournaments per year will be adopted in the EBT depending on the way they are spread over the calendar year and the number of tournaments including both women and men (either in separate divisions or in combined divisions).

7 Criteria for selecting EBT Tournaments

- 7.1 EBT Tournaments are, with the exception of World Championships and European Championships, open for all registered individuals of WTBA member federations.
- 7.2 An EBT Tournament must include at least one of the following events:
  - An individual women division and/or
  - An individual men division or
  - A combined individual women and men division.

- 7.3 The following criteria will be used by the ETBF Presidium when selecting EBT Tournaments:
- Written preliminary TV-transmission contract
  - Stepladder final or finals included in the tournament format
  - The magnitude of the first prize in each individual division
  - The magnitude of the total sum of prize money
  - Previous EBT status
  - Previous observance of the EBT Rules
  - The distribution of tournaments over the calendar year
- 7.4 If the ETBF Presidium has to choose between two tournaments, where the conditions seem equal or close to equal and a stepladder final is included in one of the tournaments only, the tournament with the stepladder final - with regard to the possibilities of TV-transmissions - will be selected.

8 Procedure for the selection of EBT Tournaments

- 8.1 The tournaments in the EBT will be selected once per year in accordance with the procedure as specified in 8.2 - 8.7.
- 8.2 Potential EBT Tournaments are always proposed by the ETBF member federations, not by the tournament hosts. On special occasions the ETBF Presidium may ask an ETBF member federation to propose one or more of their tournaments to be adopted in the EBT in the coming calendar year.
- 8.3 Latest 1 March the ETBF member federations will receive information about the next selection of EBT Tournaments, relevant forms and accompanying letter to potential organisers of EBT Tournaments the coming calendar year.
- 8.4 Latest 1 June the ETBF member federations must submit their applications for EBT Tournaments the coming calendar year to the ETBF Presidium.
- 8.5 The selection of EBT Tournaments for the coming calendar year will be done by the ETBF Presidium latest before the end of July.
- 8.6 Latest 1 August the ETBF member federations, which have submitted applications, will receive answers whether or not one or more of their tournaments are accepted in the EBT in the coming calendar year.
- 8.7 Also latest 1 August the calendar of the EBT for the coming calendar year will be available at the ETBF Website.
- 8.8 When adopted in the EBT it is not possible to change the date last day of the tournament. If the tournament anyway want to change the date of the last day, the tournament will be removed from the EBT.

9 EBT Fee

- 9.1 The fee for an EBT Tournament is €7,- per participant.
- 9.2 The EBT Tournament fee will be charged to the tournament organiser by the ETBF member federation and afterwards transferred to the account of the ETBF.
- 9.3 The EBT Tournament fee will be administered by the ETBF President.
- 9.4 The EBT fee will be used per year as follows
  - To pay the fee of the ETBF to the World Bowling Masters
  - To cover the administration expenses of the EBT
  - To (partially) pay the expenses of the European players participating in the World Bowling Masters, if possible.

10 Ranking Points in EBT Tournament

- 10.1 EBT points will be awarded to players who are member of one of the ETBF member federations. Players from other zones can not earn points in an EBT Tournament.
- 10.2 EBT points will be awarded to both women and men regardless of tournament divisions (individual or combined).
- 10.3 If there is a combined division for women and men, the women and men will be awarded points in relation to their final position relative to the other players of the same sex.
- 10.4 If one or more players without membership of one of the ETBF member federations are ranked in top 32, players with membership of ETBF member federations will be awarded points related to their final position relative to the other players with membership of ETBF member federations.
- 10.5 Ranking is decided based on all games played, i.e. in the following order
  - Position after stepladder finals
  - Position after eventual semi- and quarterfinals etc.
  - Position after qualifying games, if necessary.
- 10.6 Ranking points will be awarded to the 32 top players of each sex as follows
  - No. 1                    30 points
  - No. 2                    21 points
  - No. 3                    18 points
